

University of Miami University Archives

Finding Aid - North-South Center records (ASU0056)

Generated by Access to Memory (AtoM) 2.4.0 Printed: May 22, 2018

Language of description: English

University of Miami University Archives
University of Miami Libraries
1300 Memorial Drive
Coral Gables
FL
United States
33146
Telephone: (305) 284 8129
Fax: (305) 284 4027
Email: k.tasa@miami.edu
<https://library.miami.edu/universityarchives/>
<https://atom.library.miami.edu/index.php/asu0056>

North-South Center records

Table of contents

Summary information 3

Administrative history / Biographical sketch 3

Scope and content 3

Summary information

Repository:	University of Miami University Archives
Title:	North-South Center records
ID:	ASU0056
Date:	1984-1993 (date of creation)
Physical description:	Boxes
Language:	English
Dates of creation, revision and deletion:

Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

`<table> <tbody> <tr class="adminrow " id="description_bioghistrow"> <td class="fieldcell"> The North-South Center was created in 1984 to serve primarily as a national and hemispheric resource for the development of trade, economic, and migration policy. The center's funding was first authorized by the U.S. Congress by the North-South Center Act of 1990. It received federal funding each year through annual appropriations, and became a part of the budget of the State Department. The act authorized the United States Information Agency to "provide for the operation in Florida of an educational institution to be known as the North-South Center, through arrangements with public, educational or other nonprofit institutions." In 2005 the Center was replaced by the Center for Hemispheric Policy. </td> </tr> </tbody></table>`

The North-South Center was created in 1984 to serve primarily as a national and hemispheric resource for the development of trade, economic, and migration policy. The center's funding was first authorized by the U.S. Congress by the North-South Center Act of 1990. It received federal funding each year through annual appropriations, and became a part of the budget of the State Department. The act authorized the United States Information Agency to "provide for the operation in Florida of an educational institution to be known as the North-South Center, through arrangements with public, educational or other nonprofit institutions." In 2005 the Center was replaced by the Center for Hemispheric Policy.

Scope and content

The North-South Center collection contains various papers prepared by the organization from 1984 to 1993.

Notes

Title notes

Other notes

- Publication status: Published
- Description identifier: ArchonInternalCollectionID:961