Note

The Women's Advisory Committee on Academic Affairs, created in 1972, was appointed to serve as a liaison between the Academic Affairs Division and the Women's Commission. The representatives were members of the Women's Commission and represented all academic sectors of the University. They were asked to advise the administration on specific problems of women and to make the administration aware of any procedures that might demonstrate unequal treatment of women.

Scope and content

This collection contains various records and reports of the Women's Advisory Committee on Academic Affairs.
