University Honors (summa cum laude, magna cum laude and cum laude) are determined by a minimum GPA unique to the school or college from which the student is graduating. University honors only applies to undergraduate students.

Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

The Council of Administrators, composed of high-level personnel from all divisions of the University, was primarily a discussion group for an exchange of ideas. If consensus could be reached, it was possible for decisions to be made which could then become policy.

Scope and content

This collection contains reports produced by the Council of Administrators generated from their annual retreats held annually off-campus.
