Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

The University of Miami is governed by a Board of Trustees that includes many of South Florida's most prominent business and community leaders. Founded in 1925, the University appointed a Board of Regents in 1926; in 1934 the University was reincorporated and the Board of Trustees was established. Today the board has 31 elected members, three alumni representatives, 27 senior members, 6 national members, 6 ex-officio members, 19 emeriti members, and one student representative.

Scope and content

University of Miami Board of Trustees Photograph Collection contains portrait pictures of the trustees of the University of Miami. The organization was called Board of Regents from 1925 to 1934. The pictures were donated by the Board to the University Archives in July 2014.
