Note

University Honors (summa cum laude, magna cum laude and cum laude) are determined by a minimum GPA unique to the school or college from which the student is graduating. University honors only applies to undergraduate students.

Scope and content

The Undergraduate Honors Theses collection contains papers written by University of Miami undergraduate students from 1989 to the present.

This collection is separate from the University of Miami's Theses and Dissertations collection written by graduate and doctoral students since 1943. Richter holds over 9,000 theses and dissertations in Richter's general collection, and they can be searched in the library's online catalog by title and author.

The University of Miami Graduate School's collection of electronic theses and dissertations, over 4,000 titles published from 1961 to present, are available online at the website below.
