Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

Charles W. White was Associate Professor of Music and Director of the Music Division at La Salle University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and the biographer of Cuban musician Alejandro García Caturla (1906-1940).

Custodial history

November 2012: Addition of a catalog of musical compositions by Alejandro García Caturla. Includes music manuscripts and sheet music; two long playing records made in Cuba; recordings of major works of Caturla featuring the Orquesta Sinfónica Nacional and Cuban soloists.

Scope and content

The Charles W. White Collection contains music scores by the 20th century Cuban composer Alejandro García Caturla, as well as pamphlets, posters, audiovisual material and concert programs related to his work. It also includes notes and correspondence produced by Mr. Charles White while he was writing Caturla's biography.

Other contents in the collection include music scores and documents related to Cuban composers who were Caturla's contemporaries. Collection is arranged in three series, series 1 includes all music scores, series 2 includes all documents, and series 3 includes all audiovisual material.
