Note

The Academia Militar del Caribe was a school in Havana, Cuba. It had three programmes for boys: Elementary School; Junior High School and Commerce School. The Academy was promoted for Major Conrado García Espinosa during 1950, and General Jorge García Tañón was its first director.

Scope and content

The Academia Militar del Caribe collection consists of photographs and school materials relating to teachers and students of the Academia Militar del Caribe, a private military primary and secondary school in Havana, Cuba, during the 1950s. The collection contains photos of students and exams, drawings and grades reports, mostly relating to Alberto Cejudo Otero, from 1956 to 1958.
