BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Laureano F. Batista Falla was born in Havana, Cuba, on May 1, 1935. He received his elementary and secondary education in De la Salle School, Vedado, Havana, Cuba. In 1952, he entered the Law School of the Universidad Santo Tomás de Villanueva, Marianao, Cuba, and 1953, he was admitted at the "Escuela de Filosofía y Letras" of the University of Havana as a part time student. After his graduation in 1957 from Universidad Santo Tomás de Villanueva as a Doctor of Law, he spent a year in Germany to study the German language and did special studies in banking at the Deutsch Bank A. G. Hamburg and Munich. In January 1959, he returned to Havana, Cuba and was employed in the Legal Department of the Trust Company of Cuba. In 1960, he was compelled to leave Cuba by force of circumstances and came to Miami as an exile.

Batista Falla fought for Cuba's freedom in Cuba and from the exile. In 1960, he founded with José Ignacio Rasco and others the Movimiento Demócrata Cristiano de Cuba and was also the president of the Catholic Student Youth (J.E.C.). Laureano worked actively against Castro's Communist regime within the "Movimiento Demócrata Cristiano de Cuba en el Exilio" (M.D.C.) and organized clandestine operations against the Cuban government. He was a member of the delegations representing the M.D.C. at different congresses such as "Organización Demócrata Cristiano de América" of which the M.D.C. was a member in Lima, Perú, Santiago de Chile, Strasbourg, Caracas, etc.

Laureano received a Masters Degree in Government from the University of Miami and later a Ph.D. in Political Science from Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., in the late 1960's.

He lived in Venezuela for several years, where he was a professor at the Universidad Católica Andrés Bello, and occupied important positions in different organizations, such as Centro de Información y Documentación para América Latina (C.I.D.A.L), Ecodata, C.A., and Cibernetica Internacional, C.A.

When Batista returned to Miami, he founded the Cuban exile publication Revista Raíz, together with Alberto Pérez, Marta Fernández Morell, Raquel la Villa and others. He was also the director of the Instituto Jacques Maritain in Miami.

Laureano Batista was a tireless advocate of pluralism and democracy and in the last years of his life he organized the "Partido Demócrata Cristiano de Cuba," a political party composed of former members of different organizations who fought for the Cuban freedom. He died in Miami in 1991.
